Leaders Take Tumble; Reuter Wins Own Game

BIG LEAGUE STANDINGS

| | P. | W. | L. | Pct. |
|---------------|----|----|----|------|
| Diamond Heads | 6 | 5 | 1 | .833 |
| Punahou | 6 | 3 | 3 | .500 |
| St. Louis | 6 | 2 | 4 | .333 |
| Kama | 6 | 2 | 4 | .333 |

A plunger had a happy lunch at the Big League games on Saturday. He bel on the short-enders, and he brought home some hundreds of dollars on the deal. It was the day of days for the men who stand low in the percentage column. Leslie probably threw away the game for the Jewels, as he took a balloon and made a spectacular ascension as soon as he was put into the box, in the seventh, to relieve Bill Chillingworth. He walked man after man. With this for the ever-victorious Jewels, the Colts came home with the foliage on their brows. Reuter pitched great ball for the Kama in the second game, winning it by a 2-to-1 score, after some closely played crises.

The first game was played off to the tune of 7 to 6, in detail, as recounted in the baseball edition of the Bulletin on Saturday. In the second game, the winners scored in the first inning on an overthrow from first to third. Miller had walked to start it and Mackenzie sacrificed, the former man coming home on the overthrow.

Reuter Wins Own Game

In the last of the second the bases were filled by the Saints, but they failed to score. Both teams then scored in the fifth, Reuter winning his own game. Fern hit a three-bagger through center and Dick followed with a single through almost the same spot, which made the necessary run. The Saints scored in the same inning on an error. Bushnell hit and was advanced, and then Joy hit, the former runner coming home on an error at the initial sack. This ended the scoring.

Both games were rather slow and of the two the crowd perhaps enjoyed the first game the more, on account of the spectacular plays with which it was filled.

Chillingworth seemed to be a little bit to the bad right at first, in the box, but he steadied up later, and it seems probable that the percentage of the Jewels would still have been a thousand had he not been taken out of the game in favor of Leslie.

Davis came through with two costly overthrows from home, which he redeemed to some extent by clouting the ball over the fence, and coming around the bases in a walk, bringing in another wayfarer as well.

Evers played his usual nice game at short, but also was responsible for one bum throw, which let a runner in. He winged one too low to Davis. Had it been higher off the ground, the catcher might have slapped it on his man, as the ball reached the plate in time.

Hampton's Good Work Hampton seemed about to go the balloon route in one inning, but held himself together, and was all there for the rest of the game.

Soares, catcher for the Saints, was unfortunate enough to split a finger in the early part of the second game, and tried the right garden, with Barney Joy behind the bat, but the first try at a throw-in to first convinced him that his hand was in no condition for playing, and he went out of it.

En Sue was not in the game this time, owing to the fact that he got a bum leg last game. He was represented by En Gee.

Barney Played! Yes! The big question which had all the crowd guessing until the second game started was, Will Barney Joy play? It was known that he had not paid his fine of $5, and the officials had said that he should not be in the game otherwise. Still, he was there in a suit. A few minutes before the start of the contest one of the St. Louis Club went to Paul Isenberg and paid the V, so that when the time came, Barney was there as usual.

POLO ON MAUI

The Maui News says: A very close polo game with an algebraic score took place last Saturday afternoon, May 30th, on the Sunnyside grounds, Paia. After an exciting play of the usual three periods the result stood: Reds, minus 1-4; Whites, minus 1-2.

No goals were made by either side, but as the penalty for "safties" (hitting the ball across the opponents' goal line) is 1-4, to be subtracted from the number of goals made, it will be seen that the Whites were penalized twice to the Reds' once, and so the latter team were the winners. Those playing for the Reds were W. O. Allen (captain), H. A. Baldwin, Ed. Peck, D. C. Lindsay, and E. B. Turner. The Whites were D. T. Fleming (captain), C. C. Krumpholtz, L. von Tempack, Harold Rice, and D. E. Upton.

The game of the previous Saturday was also extremely close—Whites, 1; Reds, 1-2.

After polo games on Saturdays, the Maui Agricultural Co.'s baseball nine practice, and, judging by the present work and line-up, the Punahou nine will have to look well after its laurels in the coming Fourth of July match game for the silver trophy.

At the present time E. B. Turner is catcher; D. E. Upton, pitcher; F. P. Rosecrans, shortstop; Harold Rice first base; C. C. Krumpholtz, second base; A. Collins, third base and captain; and W. Foster is one of the fielders.

Captain Collins has a first-class amateur battery in Upton and Turner, and it is a question whether the best nine of the Walluku league can put up better ball than the M. A. Co. players.

W. T. Raposo has resigned as official scorer of the Riverside League, owing to inability to attend the games, and lack of time to keep up the work properly.

Barney Joy will pitch for the Saints when the Kolo and Santa Clara teams are here this summer.

Why be bald headed and old looking before your time? Neglect of the hair causes dandruff, and dandruff is the forerunner of falling hair and baldness. The remedy is

Ayer's Hair Vigor

A gentleman residing at Dunedin, N.Z., writes under date Jan. 7, 1907:

"It is with gratitude I write you that I have now a splendid head of hair, both thick and very soft, all owing to my having used your wonderful Hair Vigor. I was almost bald headed before I used the Hair Vigor. I still use it once a day, rubbing it well into the roots of the hair. I used to wear a skull-cap, and I am very grateful to Ayer's Hair Vigor for the improvement it has made in my looks."

Be warned in time. Use Ayer's Hair Vigor and preserve your youth.
